DONALD HJORTLAND, Pres.

March 6, 2008

In response to RoHS.

Regarding CD 2005/618/EC for Directive 2002/95/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council of January 27, 2003 on the restriction of the use of certain hazardous substances in electrical and electronic equipment, and to the Commission Decision of June 27, 2002 amending Annex 2 of Directive 2000/53/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council on vehicle end-life, The Steel Supply Company issues this statement:

The Steel Supply Company confirms that products supplied by our company do not contain any of the restricted substances above the currently proposed general limits. This conclusion is based on information received from our suppliers.

Please let us know if additional information is needed.

Sincerely,

D. E. Sheer
Vice President/General Manager
